

The Catonsville Women's Giving Circle

The Catonsville Women's Giving Circle is composed of women from the Catonsville area who believe in the power of collective philanthropy. By combining our resources, we believe we make a greater positive impact in our community. The CWGC makes charitable grants to qualifying nonprofit organizations that seek our support, chosen by consensus of the members of the Giving Circle.

Common Questions:

1. Who can join the CWGC? Anyone who is interested in making our community a better place and who is willing to commit $260 ($250 donation and $10 to cover administrative costs) to the CWGC Fund.
 2. How often does the CWGC meet? Initially we will meet quarterly.
 3. How is the CWGC structured? We are a new group whose membership is currently determining its own structure. We anticipate having a committee that reads grant proposals; another committee that makes site visits to various organizations; and one that monitors reports from the nonprofits we fund. We could potentially have a program committee that schedules periodic educational activities for the group.
 4. How do I learn more and/or get involved? Contact Dianne Burch. Email catonsvillegiving@gmail.com.
