

The Catonsville Women's Giving Circle

The Catonsville Women's Giving Circle is composed of women from the Catonsville area who believe in the power of collective philanthropy. By combining our resources, we believe we make a greater positive impact in our community than any of us individually. The CWGC makes charitable grants to qualifying nonprofit organizations that seek our support, chosen by consensus of the members of the Giving Circle.

Common Questions:

1. Who can join the CWGC? Anyone who is interested in making our community a better place and who is willing to commit $260 ($250 donation and $10 to cover administrative costs) to the CWGC Fund.
2. How often does the CWGC meet? The dues paying members meet each January for the Annual Meeting with the intention of achieving consensus on the selected grant awards. The CWGC schedules two major social events; one in the spring and one during the Holiday Season. Additionally, the CWGC holds educational and social events throughout the year.
3. How is the CWGC structured? The CWGC has a leadership circle composed of the co-conveners, co-treasurers, secretary, and the chairs or co-chairs of standing committees. There are standing committees: education, communications, grants, membership, and strategic initiatives. Adhoc committees are designated as needed at the discretion of the leadership circle. All decisions are made by consensus. The CWGC bylaws are available by request.
4. How do I learn more and/or get involved? Contact the leadership circle by emailing catonsvillegiving@gmail.com.
